

New York Sept 23. 1847.

My dear friend, I suppose you (i.e. the women of Boston) are more on the alert about the Texas question than we are, — yet, still, if a few hundred numbers of a little "Human Rights-Extra," (a copy of which I send you in the same mail with this) will be of any service to you in securing the prompt return to Congress of your women's Anti-Texas memorials, we will gladly forward them on to you. It has been sent from this office to all the men who have received from petitions from us, & will probably secure the return of ~~all~~ the memorials.

To adapt it to your case, you can with a pencil strike out the words "America," "New York," "Vincent Boston Female," & erase "H. B. Stanton" & add ——— whom you please. &c. &c.

Do you wish them? If so please send me a note by mail ^{stating the number}. We can send them by the S. Boat. — My best regards to your husband, & believe me, yours for the bleeding, H. B. Stanton
